Henry Burleson and George Whiting Meet Death

RAILROAD ACCIDENT

Near Manison-Burtsson's Body Is Buried in the Caboons - A Rear End Collision the Cause.

Henry W. Burleson of this city and George Whiting of Cadillan were killed in an accident on the G. R. & L., near Manton, at Him Toursday night. Eurleson's body was afterwards so badiy burned that it was unrecognizable. Henry W. Chamberiain of this city was scriously mjured, but he will probably receiver. This is the first acdidnat in which a passenger has been killed on the northern division of the G. E. & L road.

At 11:10 freight trains Nos. 10 and 14, which had coupled together at Manton, were stalled on the Manton hill, the accident being due to a draw-bar's pulling out. A brakeman was sent back to flag passenger train No. 2, upon whose time the freights were then run ming. The night was very stormy, and in some manner the signals were not in some manner the signals were not seen. The passenger train crashed into the rear of the freight, telescoping the caboose and a freight car.

Mr. Eurisson had boarded the freight at Manton, and was sleeping in the cabo so at the time. He is supposed to have been killed instantly. The cabonic body was partially burned.

Brakeman Whiting and Conductor Chamberlain were under the train repairing the broken draw bars. Whiting was killed almost instantly, and Chamberlain was taken out of the wreck badly injured.

Taken to Cadillac.

A wrecking train was dispatched to the scene of the accident. The bodies of the two dead men were taken to Caddilac. Mrs. Chamberlain, who lives Caddilac. Mrs. Chamberlain, who lives at No. 285 Goodrich street, was notified of the accident to her husband and went to Caddilac yesterday morning. Mr. Burleson was a traveling salesman for the Star Clothing company and had been in the employ of the company seven years. Mr. Levi was notified of the accelent early yesterday morning, and immediately dis-patched Pail J. Corrigan to go to Cad-illac and bring back the remains. Then Mr. Levi notified Mrs. Burleson of the terrible accident to her husband. She was prestrated with grief. Mr. Corrigan will return with the remains

Mr. Burleson was one of the most popular salesmen in the city. He was almember of Salesmen's union No. 18 and of the Sexennial league. He leaves a wife but no children. Jan-uary 30 he took out an accident policy in the Pacific Mutual for $5,000. Clark & Bowen wrote the policy and Mrs. Burleson will receive the full amount.

The ratiroad company has not fixed the biame for the wreck. The freight crew displayed the proper signals; but it is supposed they were invisible in the storm. Conductor Noif was in charge of the passenger train and Con-ductor Van Dusen of freight No. 10. The railroad company will investigate
